In general, it can be implied that trainings conducted using the NEAP Evaluation Forms help in the delivery of quality trainings and seminars in DepEd Bislig City Division. It does not only help in monitoring the day to day activity of the training but it also evaluates the practices needed to be sustained and issues that need to be addressed. It is important to note that training enhances the performances of an individual and will help provide technical assistance to its clients and even co-employees. It is imperative to say that employees need training and not simply training but QUALITY training.

It is therefore recommended by this study that this tool will continually be used in Bislig City Division as it shows a positive effect on the trainings being conducted. The use of NEAP Monitoring Tool will be cascaded to the school level trainings and other related activities.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT
